General discussion community because I finally want to be able to aggravate alone in 5 seconds as I can wot 2 I like that I am a lonely and I am not accidental about it. But I also do not want a team that makes the content enjoy an Esnooze festival. I like Open World Type Games, because they have á € "The open worldá € ". There is where I like to do my exploration and adventure. The last thing I need is Mythic Raid Gear to ruin it for me. 9 I like not to be misunderstood, the team of things in the daily world is important but as ... once my toon can do the bust alone, I don't care. For the most part, my tons only get a bá"Squeda base team and move to cosmá © ticos. What level of power are looking at comparison, the new world -based talent based on the world will not comply with? What is crazy is that I have returned a week after the mane, after two years of rest. The majority of LFR is already a time of time since the first raid is obsolete (after one week!) And they have told me that I am wasting my time doing the majority of Korthia/Maw. Myth and current PVP is not interested. In 9.2, I will not be able to get lfr level sets (seriously, it would be fine if the level had zero statistics and could get xMog) ... Extravac how things were in the MOP. There was a ton of things that I could do on my own/pug that felt like progress, then pave with my guild once or twice a week and make a lot of random bgs in honor sets. 12 I like Jellybeantoes: Ah, but they don't remember so. I have read many times in the forum the elitists who repeat their selective vanilla memories being a time when 100% of the players belonged to the progress unions and raided, the most diffuse number of the games at that time. Demonstically false, of course. And that there has never been anything for them to on on serodaguj noc otkatnoc reiuqauc odative nah nÓÁibmat euq sorto ed sedatsima y soimeq ne odaziottegh nah es euqrop olse neerc oreP oslaf zev arTO. ogeuj le ne nagah them. I was here for the real WoW Vanilla, and it was quite informal. Many guilds simply invited me to dungeons or raids without scrutinizing my team or history. PVP was accessible and the gear was quite decent for the Vanilla end. If you were a really casual solo player, just getting to level 60 felt like enough of a challenge and achievement to justify the game. But Blizzard is trying to turn even Classic WoW into a more competitive thing, min-maxing by introducing the mastery season. The increased experience is great, but do we really need more bosses? 20 I like Eleusia: I was here for the Vanilla WoW Real Eleusia: PVP was accessible and the gear was quite decent for the end of Vanilla Something is not added here. Eleusia: But Blizzard is trying to turn even Classic WoW into a more competitive thing, min-maxing introducing the master's season. The increased experience is great, but do we really need more bosses? Master's season is something PLAYERS asked for. PLAYERS asked for more bosses. Yeah, professional players who want everything to be harder for their achievements to feel more exclusive. Most players only wanted a faithful recreation to experience Classic again or for the first time. The same players asked WoW devs not to nerf the new Mage tower that passed the time, and the devs gave it to them too. The goal was, again, not to bring the original feeling but to satisfy professional players. The top 3% of players (in terms of skill and time spent) should not control the difficulty and gear rewards of each last aspect of the game. Give the lonely players back their lane, or this game will continue to die. 42Like Eleusia: The majority of the players would like a faithful recreation to experience experimenting Again or for the first time. Necessary appointment. Because if you look at the classic forums at this time, it is full of people who ask for changes. Eleusia: The same players asked Wow Devs not to make Nerf to the new Mage Tower/working tower, it is almost as if the magician tower was challenging. Eleusia: returns to the players only their lane, or this game will continue to die. However, they are not even talking about solo players. Mage Tower was a solo player experience and apparently you didn't like it yet. 7 I like it. what do we limit the world team? Are we talking about you receiving mythical level rewards from a worldwide bust? Because I can no longer attack or make more more than the team, the previous level is outside and the new level is in, this has been the basic element for most of the life of Wow What does that have to do with alone? Dispeemean? And who told you that Korthia is a time of time for solo players? Eleusia: The war in the solo game must end. Oh, the dramatization! It faints as a player in its most alone, what would a reduction/mlica level needed? The open world fights, even against the Lites, are trivial. I prefer to have better stories than the team that I don't really need. 6 Like Zenazin: Sá, the previous level is outside and the new level is inside, this has been the basic element for most of Wow's life in no place as raves as it is today. As I said, I have returned a week after two years and I have no reason to see the first raid to see it. In BC - Mop, passed through a path of raids/dungeons to prepare to the final patch. Zenazin: And who told you that Korthia is a time of time for solo players? A group of people in the area when asked what should be doing there, so my Everyone said the file was a waste and that the team there was going to be obsolete in a month. Anyway, I make my 3 newspapers and my daily calls. SL does not hold a candle of all the things that had to do BC - Mop. Legion also. also. He also had a lot of things to do in BFA, even thinking about the agricultural islands. 4 I like Bloomsday: although you're not even talking about solo players anymore. Mage Tower was a solo player experience and apparently you didn't like it yet. I would have made Mage Tower in every class if I would grant a complete set of heroic ILVL teams. But the MT we got was lower in both the fit and the cosmetic rewards, so no, I didn't like it. Bloomsday: Because if you look at the classic forums right now, it's full of people asking for change. Yes, the flood doors have been opened. Now that the players realize that the developers are making significant changes in the game in the classic, of course, they will have a wish list of changes they would like. 1 Like Dremim: in BC - MOP, I went through a path of raids/mazms to prepare myself to the final patch. Did you pass by vaults to Gearup instead of just getting some thunder equipment? Like what? They all had ways to omit trying to make a raid group try slowly to clear up an ALT. What again doesn't talk about any solo game. Dremim: Regardless, I do my 3 diaries and my daily calls. SL does not hold a candle of all things BC - MOP had to do. Legion too. Hell, I also had a lot of things to do in BFA, even thinking about the agricultural islands. Ah, yes, cultivating a repetition for a week and finished with that representative forever. You also continue to use group content in a discussion of the solo game. And BFA had islands? The things in the group that also tried to be PVP versus Torghast the optional solo content is your hill? Jayne: huh? When could you get a good team just running around the world? Fry. Wod. Legion. BFA? Legion introduced WQS, which changed the game, creating a complete gear route in the open world. Bfa felt like a step of legion, but the same basic concept was there: targeted gear wqs, he hoped that a couple of pieces of war/titan would accelerate on humps and was quite ripping. An important thing to take into account here is that the world was not particularly fun for a level-level character. He took a good amount of team drops before he felt pleasant, but tended to get. Shadowlands introduced a mirror of deceleration and Timesinks. Wqs more rarely fall. The war no longer existed and lvl's increases were activated twice from current and renowned lvl. The convenient team, which is felt as if it were the gear path, was blocked from anima, which was already reigning all the mini-games and activities of the open world. Add to this that the WQS were more long, more separate and more tedious in general. And basically one was hung on the initial start stop a lot, too much time. 9.1 The majority of the 9.0 scale problems was corrected ... but then they turned around and repeated many of the same slow problems in Korthia. My time characters have done well, but as I finish level alternatives, they feel trapped in the gear limbo. (I have not tried 9.2) Once more, all that really matters to me is if the game is fun for my characters with the team they have when they enter into, not what they could unlock the end of a the end of a long routine. 26 likes Dremim: SL does not hold a candle of all the things that BC - Mop had to do. The But elitists still circulate the story that SL is better than ever for solo or casual players because we can cultivate infinitely animated. ... Dremim: Everyone said the file was a waste and that thei was going to get obsolete in a month. Korthia gears can be upgraded to 233 but require a lot of agriculture. In 9.2, apparently there will be 226 gears that can be purchased to animate, which is less than Korthia gear, but it could be a good starting point for 9.2 if you prefer to cultivate encourages that relics. Apart from that, it appears that 9.2 world gears will be covered in 246, and 9.2 LFR gears will probably be 239/246. This is a step up to 233, but not as big as a step as it would normally get moving in a new gear season. 5 I like Flash News- you can log in to the game when your friends are not yet online. Ideally you can log in to the game when your friends are not and really achieve something. Part of what WoW did take off in the first place was that you could lone in the game. Grouping is better, but there are things to do alone. 10 I like to read like none of that. Why don't you stop playing if it bothers you so much? Go outside. Have some fresh air. Read a book. Be a healthy friend. Eleusia: Bloomsday: Master's season is something PLAYERS asked for. PLAYERS asked for more bosses. Most players only wanted a faithful recreation to experience Classic again or for the first time. Source, please. Because according to everything I've read, most players wanted a faithful recreation to experience Classic again or for the first time. Now that they've had that, they want something else. Eleusia: The same players asked WoW devs not to nerf the new tower of Mage walking, and the devs got on it, too. The goal was, again, not to bring the original feeling but to satisfy professional players. Again, source please. And exactly who are these players? Because I really doubt real professional players, like those who are paid to play and take care of one way or another over the lean tower of time. ELEUSIA: The top 3% of players (in terms of skill and time dedicated) should not control the difficulty and rewards of equipment of each last aspect of the game. Again, source please. ELEUSIA: returns players only their lane, or this game will continue to die. This is a MMORPG, the solos don't have a lane. And there is zero evidence that the solos have enough presence to create their own lane. Casuals and solos are not the same. 3 likes Previous Page Page á † 'á †
